Gordon D. Hoffman

As your District Governor I would like to welcome all the Lions, Lionesses, dignitaries, and guests to our 17th annual district 27-B1 Convention. Your host club, the Cleveland Lions, have been working very hard to make this the best District Convention in the State. This convention is for you to learn and experience new horizons in the world of Lionism.

The seminars that we have planned will be very informative so that you may gain the knowledge to make yourself and your club better Lions. Our guest speaker, International Director Roger R. Richert and his wife, Rosemary, will be in attendance throughout the entire convention. Take time to meet them both and make them feel welcome. They are very dedicated to the Lionism cause.

I would like to thank the entire Cleveland Lions Club and everyone who presented a seminar for their help in organizing this convention.

To District 27-B1 Lions, Lionesses, and Guests:

I would like to welcome each of you to our 17th annual District Convention.

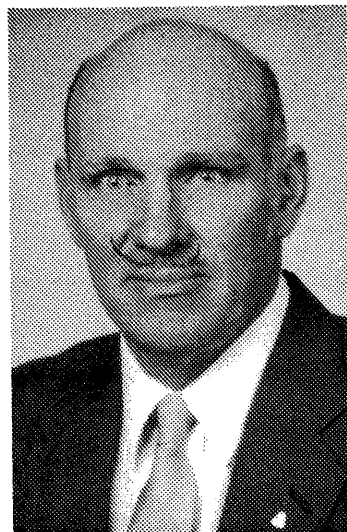

The Cleveland Lions have been working very hard to make this an exciting and enjoyable weekend in Manitowoc.

We have planed some interesting seminars, and I hope you'll find them beneficial to you and your club.

Take time to meet with our International Director, Roger Richert, and his lovely wife Rosemary. They have travelled from Bellevue, Washington, to be with us this weekend. I want to urge each of you to extend your hand of friendship, and make them feel welcome in our district.

Remember—attend the District meeting, learn from the seminars, enjoy the fellowship of the other Lions and Lionesses. But, most of all, be sure to VOTE.

IPDG Bob Showers
Convention Liaison
