Lions, Lioness, Leos, friends and distinguished guests:

Welcome to the 28th Annual Convention. My wife, Sandy, and I hope you all enjoy the presenters and their topics and find that they are informative, inspirational and fun to you. We hope that when you leave this convention you will be satisfied and that you feel in your hearts that joining us this weekend was worth it.

Seminar Chairman, PDG Orv Kittel, has lined a series of wonderful presentations. You will have a choice of four out of six topics to attend. Please pick up the informational handouts in the lobby to take back to your clubs. These handouts will show you what programs are available in Lionism and how we can live up to our motto, WE SERVE.

It is our privilege to welcome International Director, John Rabideau, from Churchville, New York, and his wife Bernadette. ID Rabideau, a very dynamic individual, will be the featured speaker at the closing banquet. Please join me in showing the Rabideaus a great Wisconsin and District 27-B1 weekend.

I would like to give thanks to Co-Chairmen PDG Orv Kittel and IPDG Ed Filemyr and their wives, Ana and Sara, for all their hard work and time they put into organizing this convention. Thanks to Louise Ebert and the supporting Lioness for their work and to the committee chairmen for their time and effort to make this convention a success. Thanks to the staff and management of the Pioneer Resort and Marina for helping to make this convention a terrific weekend for everyone.

Happy Trails,
Tom King
District Governor 27-B1

Welcome to all Lioness, Lions and guests from the 14 clubs of the Affiliate District. We are looking forward to a great District Convention. Be sure to introduce yourself to other members, as the more people you talk to the more fun you will have. Be sure to attend the wonderful seminars that are planned, as we can always learn something to take back to our own clubs. It looks like the committee has again done a great job. We don't want to make our Lioness schedule boring, as one yawn usually makes two yawners, but one bore makes many more, therefore, we will expect member participation. When packing our goody bags for our Mission to Mexico, many hands make the work go that much faster as "We Serve Too."

Enjoy your stay in Oshkosh (they have some great shopping places) and make the most of today.

Lioness Louise Ebert
Affiliate District President

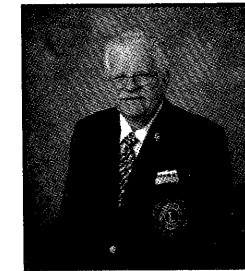

I would like to welcome all the Lions, Lioness, Leos and guests to the 28th District Convention. Every year the convention committees have strived to give you the best possible convention at the best possible cost. We want you to have a good time and we hope that we will fill your cup with the knowledge of what Lions do in our communities and the world. The sun never sets on what the Lions do in the world to help people.

Governor Tom, IPDG Ed and all the committee people have worked very hard to give you the best presenters, so everyone can get some inspiration from this convention. So have fun and enjoy everything.

I want to thank Stella Stellings and the Pioneer Resort & Marina for being excellent hosts and it has been a pleasure to work with them.

Yours in Lionism,
PDG Orville Kittel
Convention co-chairman

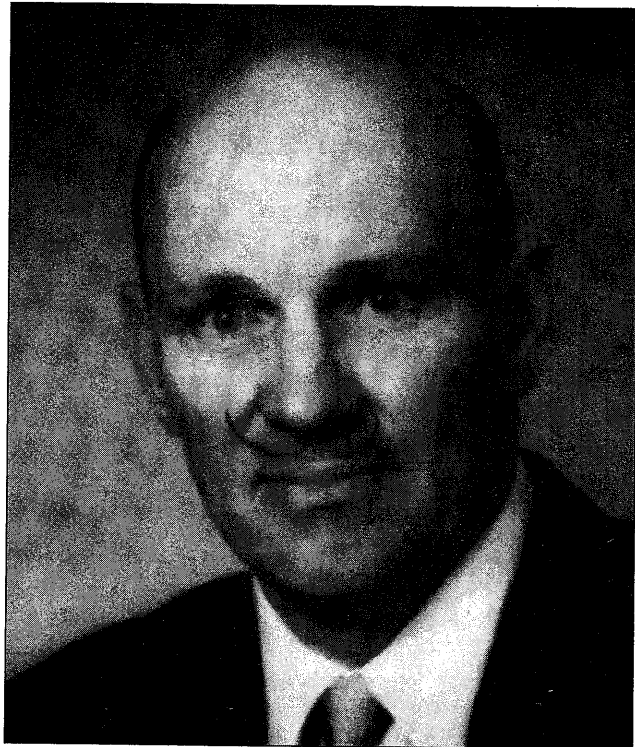

Welcome to our 28th 27-B1 convention in Oshkosh—On the Water. It is an honor and a privilege to serve this great district as a convention co-chairman. The seminars and meetings should be interesting to all attendees. I'm sure you will be very satisfied with our fine speakers. We will have various booths and displays in the lobby in which to gather materials. Take this valuable information back with you to your clubs and share.

This year we are honored to have as our special guest, International Director John Rabideau. I'm sure his talk will be very stimulating. You should go home an energetic Lion, Lioness or Leo. See you in Manitowoc next year, November 12 & 13 at the Holiday Inn.

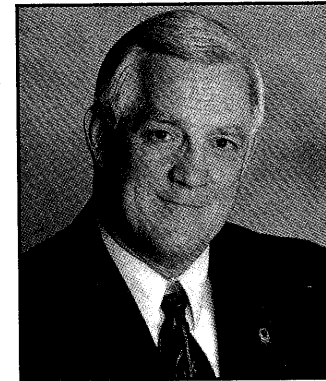

Yours in Lionism,
IPDG Edward Filemyr
Convention co-chairman

International Director

CANDIDATE • 27-B1

International Director - John E. Rabideau

John E. Rabideau, of Churchville, New York, USA, was elected to serve a two-year term as a director of The International Association of Lions Clubs at the association's 85th International Convention, held in Osaka, Japan, July 8-12, 2002. Director Rabideau is an independent insurance agent and a veteran of the United States Navy.

A member of the Churchville Lions Club since 1974, Director Rabideau has held many offices within the association, including club bulletin editor, club secretary, club president, zone chairperson, region chairperson, district governor and council chairperson. He also served on the multiple district Policy Manual Committee, the Long-Range Planning Committee as chairperson, the Nomination Committee and the Election Committee. In addition, he has served as chairperson of the International Campaign Committee, chairperson of the Finance Committee, trustee and president for two years of the NYS & Bermuda Lions Foundation and in different capacities at training seminars and USA/Canada Lions Leadership forums.

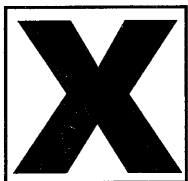

In recognition of his service to the association, Director Rabideau has received numerous awards, including the 100% Club Secretary Award, the 100% Club President Award, the Club Career Lion Award, the Club Lion of the Year Award, the Past District Governor Organization Leadership Award, the Robert J. Uplinger Distinguished Service Award, the 100% District Governor Award, the International Extension Award, the International Membership Key Award, three International President's Certificates of Appreciation, the International President's Leadership Award and three International President's Awards. He is also a life member of the Churchville Lions Club and a Melvin Jones Fellow.

In addition to his Lion activities, Director Rabideau is active in numerous professional and community organizations. He is a member of the New York State Independent Insurance Agents Association and a member, director and past president of the Churchville Chamber of Commerce. In the past, Director Rabideau served as a member of the St. Vincent de Paul Planned Giving Committee and as a chairman of the Churchville-Chili Central School District Redistricting Committee. Director Rabideau and his wife, Bernadette, also a Lion, have a daughter who is a Lion, a son and two granddaughters.
