To: District 27-B1 Lions, Lioness and Guests

A big hearty "welcome" to the Valley Inn and our District's 16th Annual Convention. The Town of Menasha Lions have done a terrific job of planning this weekend and I know they will be gracious hosts. From the Friday night hospitality to the final minute of the Governor's Banquet, there'll be "fun and learning" in store for everyone. It is up to all of us - delegates, alternates, and all attendees to take this Lions information back to our home clubs and share with all the grass-roots Lions the news of all Lion activities and projects. Make plans right now to attend three different seminars of your choice and you'll get this information first hand from experts in these Lions projects. (Right now I want to say a big public "Thank You" to all the seminar presenters for their hard work in putting together informative and interesting sessions and for a job well done.)

Our distinguished guests for the entire week-end will be International Director Bob Seibert and his wife Mary from New York State. Get to meet them - I'm sure that his enthusiasm for Lionism will rub off on us these three days. We are "International Lions."

HAVE A GOOD TIME!

IPDG Vic V. Voigt
