Dear Lions, Lionesses, and Friends:

It is indeed an honor and privilege to welcome you all to our 8th District 27B-1 Convention.

The Lions and Spouses of the Town of Menasha Lions have worked many hours to make this a very worthwhile and enjoyable convention. We thank them all, and ask your support and cooperation to the Town of Menasha Lions during these next couple days.

MILT WOOD
Dist. Gov. 27-B1

Lions across the country are continuing to Join Hands in Service to all mankind. District 27-B1 has been so active in joining hands in our local community projects as well as meeting the goals of our International President, Dr. James Fowler: namely, fighting drug abuse, diabetes, blindness and promoting growth in Lionism. At this convention, it is my hope that you "grow" by keeping an open mind on what activities you can use to help the Lionism cause.

The seminars at this convention are organized to help you go back to your clubs with ideas to become involved, to show your concern, and to give you the understanding needed to Join Hands in Service. Use the resources presented at this convention and return with hope that it will indeed be a great year for 27-B1 and for Lionism.

As we Join Hands, let us remember my slogan: ICU — Involvement, Concern, and Understanding.

Milt Wood
Dist. Gov. 27-B1

Fellow Lions, Lionesses, and Guests:

Welcome to the Eighth District 27-B1 Convention!

VERNON PAUTZ
Dist. 27-B1 Convention Chairman

The host club — Town of Menasha Lions — have worked diligently and are confident that this will be the best ever.

Our District Governor Milt Wood and the Convention Committee have arranged an inspiring format that will be beneficial to all of us. The Saturday Evening Banquet will feature International Director William L. "Bill" Biggs of Omaha, Nebraska. His expertise will bring a new perspective to all Wisconsin Lions and Lionesses.

The excellent facilities at Valley Inn, Menasha, provide the right setting for each of us to have an enjoyable and educational convention.

Let us return home with a renewed desire to share and extend our hands in service with our fellow man.

Yours in Lionism,

Vernon Pautz
District 27-B1
Convention Chairman

Fellow Lions, Lionesses, and Guests:

On behalf of our entire club, may we extend a heartfelt welcome to all Lions, Lionesses and guests. We hope that your attendance at our convention will be a pleasurable and memorable experience. It is our hope that you will return home with a deeper sense of pride in belonging to the world's greatest service organization "Lions International."

Convention Host Co-chairmen
Town of Menasha Lions Club, Inc.

October 28, 1983

The Town of Menasha hereby extends its warmest welcome to the members of the Lions International attending this 8th District Convention. Your host Club, the Town of Menasha Lions Club, is one of the newest Lions Clubs in the State of Wisconsin and I am very aware that our Club is one of the more active.

We, in the Town of Menasha, are very proud of the contributions our local Club has made, such as the "Fitness Trail" and the "handicapped facilities" in our Town of Menasha parks.

Your 8th Annual Convention, being held in the City of Neenah, and hosted by the Town of Menasha Club, again shows the cooperative spirit held by all Lions throughout the world.

On behalf of the entire Town of Menasha, I bid you welcome! Enjoy our area as much as we living here do, and when you leave to return to your home Club, I hope you take many pleasant memories with you.

Sincerely,

James H. Greiner
Chairman
Town of Menasha

WILLIAM L. "BILL" BIGGS
International Director

William L. "Bill" Biggs of Omaha, Nebraska, was elected to serve a two-year term as a Director of The International Association of Lions Clubs at the Association's 66th Annual Convention held in Honolulu, Hawaii, U.S.A., June 22-25, 1983.

Director Biggs is an attorney and a partner in the firm of Schmid, Ford, Mooney & Frederick in Omaha, Nebraska.

A Lion since 1962, and a member of the Omaha Lions Club since 1971, Director Biggs has held several leadership positions in the Association, including Club President, Zone Chairman, District Governor and Chairman of Multiple District 38's Council of Governors.

Among the awards Director Biggs has received for his work in Lionism are the International President's Award, 100% District Governor's Award, an Extension Award and four District Governor's Appreciation Awards.

Director Biggs' strong community involvement has included serving as a Board member and Treasurer of the Lions Eye Bank of Nebraska, Inc., a member of the President's Advancement Council of Midland Lutheran College and a Board member of the University of Nebraska Law College Alumni Association. He also is extremely active at the national and state levels in the Lutheran church, and has held many positions in Rejoice Lutheran Church, including three years as Council President.

Active in professional organizations, Director Biggs belongs to the Omaha, the Nebraska and American Bar Associations and has served a three-year term on the Executive Council of the Omaha Bar Association and as chairman of the Long Range Planning Committee.

Director Biggs and his wife, Dr. Bette, have five children.

The beer Consumer Reports ranked first on their quality/price list.

Among stiff competition from the most popular Premium and even Super-Premium beers in the world, Miller High Life was ranked first by Consumer Reports on their quality/price list. Their taste experts also judged Miller High Life as "full-bodied, with a well-balanced, fresh flavor and aroma."

So if you like beer, pick up the July issue of Consumer Reports and some Miller High Life. It's one article you'll want to read with your lips.

1. On the 14th of May
Back in Fifty-one
We received our Charter
This club was begun.
2. T'was quite a struggle
but it finally took hold
Now we're proud to be part of the Purple and Gold.
3. These words may not have
Much reason or rhyme
But at the Mini-convention
Hope you have a good time.
